CHAPTER 354

RESCINDING LEGISLATIVE ACTION

S. J. R. 6

JOINT RESOLUTION rescinding the actions of the thirtieth, thirty-first, thirty-second and thirty-third general assemblies of the state of Iowa, memorializing congress to call a constitutional convention for the purpose of amending the constitution of the United States.

WHEREAS, the thirtieth general assembly of the state of Iowa, by its joint resolution No. 3 did declare itself to be in favor of the adoption of an amendment to the constitution of the United States, which amendment should provide for the election of United States senators by popular vote, and which resolution requested the congress of the United States to call such a convention to propose such an amendment, in accordance with the provisions of article V of the constitution of the United States, and

WHEREAS, the thirty-first general assembly, by its joint resolution No. 3 did declare itself to be in favor of the calling of a constitutional convention for the purpose of amending the constitution of the United States in regard to the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people, and

WHEREAS, the thirty-second general assembly of the state of Iowa did, by its joint resolution No. 2, declare itself in favor of the calling of a constitutional convention for the purpose of proposing amendments to the constitution of the United States, and

WHEREAS, the thirty-third general assembly of the state of Iowa did, by its joint resolution No. 9, declare itself to be in favor of the calling of a constitutional convention for the purpose of proposing amendments to the constitution of the United States, and

WHEREAS, each of the above described resolutions, duly authenticated, were delivered to the president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives of the United States, requesting that the same be laid before said bodies for action whenever applications of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states shall have been made, in accordance with the provisions of article V of the constitution of the United States, and

WHEREAS, there is now no occasion to call a constitutional convention for the purpose of proposing the amendments to the constitution of the United States referred to in said resolutions by the respective general assemblies of the state of Iowa, said matters having already been otherwise provided for, and

WHEREAS, the records of the senate of the United States and the house of representatives of the United States still record the application of the legislature of the state of Iowa as expressed in the foregoing described resolutions, and other states have also in years past made similar applications, making a total list of applications from the legislatures of almost two-thirds of the several states, now therefore

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

1 SECTION 1. That joint resolution No. 3 by the thirtieth general
2 assembly of the state of Iowa, joint resolution No. 3 by the thirty-first 3 general assembly of the state of Iowa, joint resolution No. 2 by the 4 thirty-second general assembly of the state of Iowa, and joint resolu-
5 tion No. 9 by the thirty-third general assembly of the state of Iowa,
6 requesting the congress of the United States to call a convention 7 for the purpose of proposing amendments to the constitution of the 8 United States, in accordance with the provisions of article V of 9 the constitution of the United States, be and the same are hereby 10 rescinded and withdrawn.

1 SEC. 2. That this resolution, duly authenticated, shall be delivered 2 forthwith to the president of the senate and speaker of the house of 3 representatives of the United States, with a request that the same 4 be laid before said senate and house, and the applications described in 5 section one herein, requesting the calling of a constitutional conven-
6 tion, be withdrawn and cancelled.

Approved April 19, A. D. 1927.
